

THE AXIS OF GOOD AND EVIL

There's this constant tension in youth ministry: we want to use culture to talk about big issues and themes with young people, but often the films, TV shows and video games with the best moral messages are the ones made by well-meaning Christians in a shed. To put that another way, often the films, TV shows and video games with the best moral messages are terrible. So, here's our solution to this problem: a monthly round-up where we rank a whole heap of stuff on whether it's any good, and whether it's both suitable and worth showing to your youth group

THIS MONTH: TV SHOWS

- Reality Show
- Drama
- Comedy
- Science fiction
- Documentary/Factual
